

Cameroon fiber optic cable lines haphazardly connected

(Business in Cameroon) - The Telecommunications Regulatory Board (ART) initiated a new restricted tender on May 12, 2025, for an audit of Cameroon's national fiber optic network. The move comes ...

Internet users in Cameroon have been experiencing significant service disruptions for more than 48 hours now. The reason is a new cut in the country's fiber optic network, managed by ...

Mobile network carriers in the country have recently traded blame for poor service quality, attributing it to Camtel's optic fibre connectivity.

The government-ordered audit aims to assess the current state of the national fiber optic network, which is crucial for ensuring the proper functioning of telecommunications services. ...

"In effect, multiple disruptions on the optic fibre backbone between Douala and Yaounde are currently hampering the functioning of voice and data equipment in the two cities and other parts ...

The Cameroon Telecommunications, CAMTEL, has been a victim of repeated acts of vandalism on its infrastructures. In a recent outing, CAMTEL had decried what its officials said are ...

State-owned telco, Cameroon Telecommunications, (CAMTEL), has refuted allegations that it is responsible for the deterioration in the quality of electronic communications on the Orange ...

Cameroon's Telecommunications Regulatory Board (ART) has launched a restricted tender for a new audit of the national fibre optic network. The move comes amid persistent concerns ...

Chad has urged telecoms operators to restart discussions to enable the N'Djamena-Mber#233; fiber optic route connecting Chad to Cameroon.

Cameroon invested $45.2-54.2 million in fiber optic infrastructure, but it remains largely underutilized. Consumers continue to report declining telecom service quality, despite investments. Camtel, the ...

Cameroon fiber optic cable lines haphazardly connected

Web: <https://maxtools.co.za>

